

Dear Classics,

The beginning of the Fall Semester is here, and I don't know about you, but I am excited about what is happening at First Baptist Church of Bryan. I am humbled by the number of college students who attended worship and group life on move-in Sunday. School has now started, and we are expecting even more. Both worship services are booming, and all our group life space is being utilized. This growth has facilitated us to go to three worship services and two group life hours. Our new schedule is – 8:40 am – 9:40 am Traditional Worship; 10:10 am – 11:10 am Group Life and Contemporary Worship; 11:30 am – 12:30 pm Group Life and Contemporary Worship. If you enjoy worshipping in the Contemporary Service, would you prayerfully consider attending the 10:10 am Contemporary Service and the new 11:30 am Group Life hour. We are starting a new 50+ class called “The Sword” in the 11:30 Group Life hour in room 136 and I would love for you to be a part of this. God is blessing FBC Bryan in so many ways and I give Him all the credit. I am thankful that He is allowing all of us to join in His redemptive plan for all creation through the work of His church. In my chronological bible study today, I am finishing the Old Testament and beginning the New Testament. My last Old Testament passage was Psalm 106. Take time to read this Psalm and meditate on God's goodness and mercy (v.1-3, 48) considering Israel's continual disobedience throughout her history (remainder of Psalm 106). I begin my New Testament reading in John 1:4-14. Here John writes, “the Word became flesh and dwelt among us. We observed his glory, the glory as the one and only Son from the Father, full of grace and truth. Jesus dwelt (tabernacled) with us and revealed His glory (Shekinah glory) to us. God's presence among His people, such an important theme in the Old Testament, came to a new realization in Christ. I'm thankful that we belong to a church where we can gather together in worship, grow together in group life, and go together on mission. So today, and every day, let's Make Jesus our All and Share Him with All.

See you Sunday!

David
