

Dear Classics,

It's hard to believe that summer is here, but it is. Fall will be here before you know it. Time marched on so let's make the best of each day God gives us. I am reminded of the Glory of God in scripture. This morning, I was encouraged by Psalm 8:1-9. Read it with me today: 8:1 O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth! You have set your glory above the heavens. 2 Out of the mouth of babies and infants, you have established strength because of your foes, to still the enemy and the avenger. 3 When I look at your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have set in place, 4 what is man that you are mindful of him, and the son of man that you care for him? 5 Yet you have made him a little lower than the heavenly beings and crowned him with glory and honor. 6 You have given him dominion over the works of your hands; you have put all things under his feet, 7 all sheep and oxen, and also the beasts of the field, 8 the birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea, whatever passes along the paths of the seas. 9 O LORD, our Lord, how majestic is your name in all the earth!

We all have our issues in life, good and not so good. The words of this Psalm encourage me because the God I love, worship, and adore is sovereign over all creation. His name is majestic in all the earth. When Jesus was instructing the twelve, he said, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. 54 Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up on the last day. 55 For my flesh is true food, and my blood is true drink. 56 Whoever feeds on my flesh and drinks my blood abides in me, and I in him". (John 6) After Jesus shared these hard truths, many turned away from Him and never walked with Him again. So, he asked the twelve, "Do you want to go as well?" But Peter said to Jesus what we need to say today, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life, 69 and we have believed, and have come to know, that you are the Holy One of God." In all aspects of life, Jesus is our portion. He is our daily bread, because He has the words of eternal life. Jesus is all you need. In the praise song, Daily Bread, that we worshiped to this past Sunday, the chorus says, "It is good for me to draw near my God; It is good for me to trust in my God; It is good for me to declare all His works; It is good for me, you are good for me.

Blessings to All!

See you Sunday!
